- 5.16 The reservation for Women is against current vacancy. The reservation for these categories i.e. Women is Horizontal reservation and candidates selected against the quota for Women will be placed in appropriate category viz. SC, ST, VJ(A), NT(B), NT(C), NT(D), SBC, OBC, SEBC & OPEN categories depending upon the category to which they belong in the roster meant for reservation of the backward classes.
- 5.17 The age relaxation for the reserved category applicants is admissible only in the case of vacancies reserved for such categories. The reserved category applicants, who apply against posts meant of Open category, are not entitled to get age relaxation.
- 5.18 The reserve category candidates who avail concession in age will not be considered against the Open category posts. The applicants are requested to observe the vacancies before submission of online application.
- 5.19 Once the caste/tribe is mentioned in online application form, it cannot be changed at any stage later on.

6. METHODOLOGY OF SELECTION:

- 6.1. The candidates will have to appear for the online/written test and interview at his/her own cost. The candidates will be short-listed for personal interview taking into consideration their performance and information provided in online application in the online/written test in the ratio of 1:3. A candidate who participates in the online/written test and is shortlisted for the interview based on their performance in the examination must attend the interview process. Failure to attend the interview will result in disqualification, and such candidates will not be considered while preparing the final result.

- 6.2. The online/written examination tentatively will comprise the following objective type multiple choice tests and essay writing as stated below:

S. N.	Test	No. of Questions	Marks	Time
1.	Test of Professional Knowledge	50	100	100 Minutes
2.	Test of General Aptitude: i.e. (A) Test of Reasoning (B) Test of Quantitative Aptitude	40 20	20 10
3.	Essay Writing (Online)	1	30
Total		111	160	120 Minutes

MERC reserves the right to modify the structure of the examination which will be intimated through its website. Other detailed information regarding the examination will be given in an Information Hand-out, which will be made available for the candidates to download along with the call letters from the authorized MERC website www.merc.gov.in.

- 6.3. The time for the test is 120 minutes; however, you may have to be at the venue for approximately 180 minutes including the time required for logging in, collection of the call letters, going through the instructions etc. The tests will be provided in English. Candidate can attempt any question from Sr. No. 1 and 2 in above table within 100 minutes and question from Sr. No. 3 within 20 minutes. The questions of Sr. No. 1 and 2 will have multiple choices. Out of the four answers to a question only one will be the correct answer. Candidates have to select the most appropriate answer and the 'mouse click' that alternative which you feel is appropriate /correct.
- 6.4. For Sr. No. 3, candidate has to type an essay in 300 words in English.
- 6.5. There will be penalty for wrong answers marked in the Objective Tests (Sr. No. 1 and 2). For each question for which a wrong answer has been given by the candidate one fourth or 0.25 of the marks assigned to that question will be deducted as penalty to arrive at corrected score. If a question is left blank, i.e. no answer is marked by the candidate, there will be no penalty for that question.
- 6.6. The Scores of Online Examination will be obtained by adopting the following procedure:
- Number of questions answered correctly by a candidate in each objective test is considered for arriving at the corrected Score after applying penalty for wrong answers.
  - The Corrected Scores so obtained by a candidate are made equivalent to take care of the minor difference in difficulty level, if any, in each of the objective tests held in different sessions to arrive at the Equated Scores*
- * Scores obtained by candidates on any test are equated to the base form by considering the distribution of scores of all the forms.

- 6.7. The list/roll No. of applicants called for the online test, short-listed for interview will be made available on the website of the MERC only. Similarly, the list of finally selected candidates will also be displayed on the website.
- 6.8. The recruitment in MERC is done strictly as per merit.
- 6.9. Canvassing in any form will disqualify the candidate.
- 6.10. If any false/incorrect information furnished by the candidate is detected at any stage of recruitment process, his/her candidature will not be considered.
- 6.11. If the candidate knowingly or willfully furnishes incorrect or false particulars or suppresses material information, he/she will be disqualified and if appointed, shall be liable for dismissal from the MERC's service without any notice or assigning any reasons whatsoever.
- 6.12. The decision of the MERC in all matters relating to recruitment/interpretation shall be final and no individual correspondence will be entertained.
- 6.13. The selection of Departmental candidate will be subject to verification of disciplinary actions in process/contemplated and other service records. The decision of the MERC in this regard shall be final and no individual representations will be entertained.
- 6.14. If two or more candidates have scored equal marks, then the priority will be as per the Date of Birth. The elder candidate (more age) will be given preference when the select list is prepared. In the occasion where the candidates have same Date of Birth, then preference will be given as per average marks obtained in SSC examination. So, candidates should mention SSC average marks and not Best of five marks in the online application.
- 6.15. The select list will be drawn by giving 80% weightage to the performance in the online test and 20% weightage to the interview. Accordingly, the result will be prepared out of 100 marks considering social and horizontal reservation.
- 6.16. Normally selection process comprises online test and interview of the shortlisted candidates. However, which shortlist / selection process is to be adopted will be decided by the MERC and the decision of the MERC in this regard shall be final.
- 6.17. Cut off Marks : Open category candidates or candidate who have applied against OPEN category and who obtain less than 40 % marks in online examination test and as well as reserved category candidates belonging to any one of SC, ST, VJ(A), NT(B), NT(C), NT(D), SBC, OBC, SEBC, EWS who obtain less than 30 % in online examination test will not be considered for personal interview.

11. ONLINE EXAMINATION:

- (i) CANDIDATES REPORTING LATE i.e. after the reporting time specified on the call letter for Examination will not be permitted to take the examination. The reporting time mentioned on the call letter is prior to the Start time of the test.

- (ii) IDENTITY VERIFICATION

In the examination hall, the call letter along with original and a photocopy of the candidate's currently valid photo identity such as PAN Card/Passport/ Driving License/ Voter's Card/ Bank Passbook with photograph/ Photo identity proof issued by a Gazetted Officer on official letterhead/ Photo identity proof issued by a People's Representative on official letterhead / valid recent Identity Card issued by a recognized College/ University/ Aadhar card with a photograph/ Employee ID/ Bar Council Identity Card with photograph should be submitted to the invigilator for verification. The candidate's identity will be verified with respect to his/her details on the call letter, in the Attendance List and requisite documents submitted. If identity of the candidate is in doubt the candidate may not be allowed to appear for the Examination.

Ration Card are not valid id proofs for this purpose, as the photo identity proof is required.

Note: Candidates have to produce in original the photo identity proof and submit photocopy of the photo identity proof along with Examination call letter while attending the examination, without which they will not be allowed to take up the examination. Candidates must note that the name as appearing on the call letter (provided during the process of registration) should exactly match the name as appearing on the photo identity proof. Female candidates who have changed first/last/middle name post marriage must take special note of this. If there is any mismatch between the name indicated in the Call Letter and Photo Identity Proof the candidate will not be allowed to appear for the examination.

(iii) GUIDELINES FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES USING A SCRIBE

The visually impaired candidates and candidates whose writing speed / typing speed is adversely affected permanently for any reason can use their own scribe at their cost during the online examination. In all such cases where a scribe is used, the following rules will apply:

- The candidate will have to arrange his/her own scribe at his/her own cost.
- The scribe arranged by the candidate should not be a candidate for the same examination. If violation of the above is detected at any stage of the process, candidature of both the candidate and the scribe will be cancelled. Candidates eligible for and who wish to use the services of a scribe in the examination should invariably carefully indicate the same in the online application form. Any subsequent request may not be favourably entertained.
- A person acting as a scribe for one candidate cannot be a scribe for another candidate.
- The scribe may be from any academic stream. However, for Assistant Director (Technical) posts the scribe should be from an academic stream different from that prescribed for the post.
- Both the candidate as well as scribe will have to give a suitable undertaking confirming that the scribe fulfils all the stipulated eligibility criteria for a scribe mentioned above. Further in case it later transpires that he/she did not fulfill any laid down eligibility criteria or suppressed material facts the candidature of the applicant will stand cancelled, irrespective of the result of the online examination.
- Those candidates who use a scribe shall be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes for every hour of the examination or as otherwise advised.
- Scribe should not answer on his/her own. Any such behaviour observed will result in cancellation of candidature
- Only candidates registered for compensatory time will be allowed such concessions since compensatory time given to candidates shall be system based; it shall not be possible for the test conducting agency to allow such time if he / she is not registered for the same. Candidates not registered for compensatory time shall not be allowed such concessions.
- During the exam, at any stage, if it is found that scribe is independently answering the questions, the exam session will be terminated and candidate's candidature will be cancelled. The candidature of such candidates using the services of a scribe will also be cancelled if it is reported after the examination by the test administrator personnel that the scribe independently answered the questions.

(iv) Guidelines for Candidates with locomotor disability and cerebral palsy

A compensatory time of 20 minutes per hour or otherwise advised shall be permitted for the candidates with locomotor disability and cerebral palsy where dominant (writing) extremity is affected to the extent of slowing the performance of function (minimum of 40% impairment).

(v) Guidelines for Visually Impaired candidates

- Visually Impaired candidates (who suffer from not less than 40% of disability) may opt to view the contents of the test in magnified font and all such candidates will be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes for every hour or otherwise advised of examination.
- The facility of viewing the contents of the test in magnifying font will not be available to Visually Impaired candidates who use the services of a Scribe for the examination

These guidelines are subject to change in terms of GOI guidelines/clarifications, if any, from time to time.

(vi) OTHER CLAUSES

1. The possibility of occurrence of some problem in the administration of the examination cannot be ruled out completely which may impact test delivery and/or result from being generated. In that event, every effort will be made to rectify such problem, which may include movement of candidates, delay in test. Conduct of a re-exam is at the absolute discretion of test conducting body. Candidates will not have any claim for a re-test. Candidates not willing to move or not willing to participate in the delayed process of test delivery shall be summarily rejected from the process.
2. Decision of MERC in all matters relating to recruitment will be final and binding on the candidate. No correspondence or personal enquiries shall be entertained by the MERC in this behalf.
3. If the examination is held in more than one session, the scores across various sessions will be equated to adjust for slight differences in difficulty level of different test batteries used across sessions. More than one session is required if the nodes capacity is less or some technical disruption takes place at any center or for any candidate.

4. MERC would be analyzing the responses (answers) of individual candidates with those of other candidates to detect patterns of similarity of right and wrong answers. If in the analytical procedure adopted by MERC in this regard, it is inferred / concluded that the responses have been shared and scores obtained are not genuine / valid, MERC reserves right to cancel the candidature of the concerned candidates and the result of such candidates (disqualified) will be withheld.
5. Instances for providing incorrect information and/or process violation by a candidate detected at any stage of the selection process will lead of disqualification of the candidate from the selection process and he/she will not be allowed to appear in any MERC recruitment process in the future. If such instances go undetected during the current selection process but are detected subsequently, such disqualification will take place with retrospective affect.
